

CFC Awards 15

On June 28, 2011 OPM Director John Berry presented the annual National Combined Federal Campaign (CFC) awards at the Eisenhower Executive Office Building at The White House. The awards recognized 9 campaigns that had significant increases in contributions, five campaigns that implemented new and innovative practices, and 11 individuals who went above and beyond the call of duty to make the campaign successful in their areas.

OPM Director John Berry presented a 2010 CFC Innovation Award to Susan Ground of the Central California CFC. The award was given in response to the Ground's development of the FLEx Team, (Federal Loaned Executives Team) The FLEx Team helps reduce overhead costs by utilizing skills-based volunteerism to support the Central California CFC and gives local Federal agencies flexibility in how/when they provide volunteers.

USOPM Photo By: Timothy Grant 6/28/11

